National FFA Alumni
Outstanding Achievement Award

Local	Total Points	Total Points Possible	Exceptional (36-50)	Satisfcatory (20-35)	Poor (0-19)
		50	Demonstration of devotion to the local FFA program. Evidence to sincere dedication to supporting the endeavors of the students and the instructor(s) to meet the challenges faced in agricultural education. Multiple examples of references of their achievements and a proven record of enthusiasm to secure the promise of FFA and agricultural education for future generations. A sincere desire to expand the Alumni association in members and in service. Examples of exceptional service include: continued service in local advisory boards, numerous sponsorships (assisting with and/or providing), donation of numerous hours of service, a true mentor and positive role model for students, and an officer of the local organization. This individual is truly a driver for the success of their local Alumni chapter with multiple years of service.	Multiple examples of service to the local level including evidence of sincere support and dedication to the local level including evidence of sincere support and dedication to the local agricultural education instructor and FFA students. Has been involved for a few years as a major supporter of the organization. Application includes multiple references to recruitment and involvement in multiple FFA alumni social activities. This person would be considered "Above Average" when describing FFA Alumni membership. This person would be considered a friend of the alumni chapter and a role model for students.	Minimal examples of support to local instructor or students. Dedication shown for only a short period of time. Lack of service to local council or advisory board. Minimal service for a local member. Application includes only a few references to team building and recruitment.
State	Total Points	Total Points Possible	Exceptional (17-25)	Satisfcatory (9-16)	Poor (0-8)
		25	Evidence to sincere dedication to supporting the endeavors of the state association. Multiple examples of references of their achievements and a proven record of enthusiasm to secure the promise of FFA and agricultural education for future generations. A sincere desire to expand the state FFA Alumni association in members and in service. Examples of exceptional service include: continued service in State advisory boards or FFA Alumni councils including being an officer or coordinator, numerous sponsorships (assisting with and/or providing), donation of numerous hours of service, and designated a true mentor and positive role model for students.	Multiple examples of service to the state association including evidence of sincere support and dedication. Application includes multiple references to recruitment and involvement in multiple FFA alumni social activities. This person would be considered "Above Average" when describing FFA Alumni membership. This person would be considered a friend of the alumni chapter and a role model for students.	Minimal examples of support to the state association or dedication shown for only a short period of time. Lack of service to National FFA Alumni Council. Application includes only a few references to team building and recruitment.
National	Total Points	Total Points Possible	Exceptional (17-25)	Satisfcatory (9-16)	Poor (0-8)
		25	Evidence to sincere dedication to supporting the endeavors of the national association. Multiple examples of references of their achievements and a proven record of enthusiasm to secure the promise of FFA and agricultural education for future generations. A sincere desire to expand the National FFA Alumni association in members and in service. Examples of exceptional service include: continued service on national advisory boards or FFA Alumni council including serving as an officer, numerous sponsorships (assisting with and/or providing), donation of numerous hours of service, and designated a true mentor and positive role model for students.	Multiple examples of service to the national level including evidence of sincere support and dedication to the National Association. The individual has been involved for a few years as a major supporter of the organization. Application includes multiple references to recruitment and involvement in multiple FFA alumni social activities. This person would be considered "Above Average" when describing FFA Alumni membership. This person would be considered a friend of the alumni chapter and a role model for students.	Minimal examples of support to local instructor or students. Dedication shown for only a short period of time. Lack of service to local council or advisory board. Minimal service for a local member. Application includes only a few references to recruitment.
TOTAL: Local, State, National Below 70 = Bronze, 70-85 = Silver, 86-100 = Gold	0	100 Below 70 = Bronze, 70-85 = Silver, 86-100 = Gold			